Babe Ruth Day Centennial

July 1, 1924 – The “Sultan of Swat”, Babe Ruth, accepted the invitation of Delanco Township to come to Delanco to play in an exhibition game between the Delanco All-Stars and the Burlington All-Stars. 5,000 visitors attended the game!

Delanco will celebrate its Babe Ruth Centennial with a double-header of vintage baseball on Saturday, September 7th. All will be welcome to this free event.

The History Open House in June will feature a display relating to this event, including a reading of the Delanco Township resolution honoring the centennial event.

The Delanco Township History Board announces the fifth in a series of family-friendly History Open Houses to be held in the atrium of the Delanco Township Building on Saturday, June 15 from 1 to 3pm. Free public access to local displays; Pick up free publications and discuss local history with members of the Delanco History Board. Delanco Mayor, Matt Bartlett will be on hand. Come and Meet the Mayor.

Current displays:

Delanco Watermen, Babe Ruth Centennial, and Doing Business in Delanco.
